Republican Leader Bates Asks
Voters to Nominate
Their Choices.

TO CANVASS THE STATE.

Hopes to Overthrow Bosses in Both Parties by His Unique Scheme.

London Bates Jr., former Assemblyman, President of the Republican Club of the Twenty-ninth Assembly District and captain of the Sixth Election Division of his assembly district, started a canvass in the Republican organization of this city today, when he called upon the voters of his assembly district to decide for themselves whom they wanted nominated for President next fall.

Mr. Bates, in a postal card which he has sent to every voter in his election district, called upon Republicans and Democrats to express their choice.

"Let the people talk for themselves," declared Mr. Bates to an Evening World reporter at his office, No. 71 Broadway. "We have heard Bill Barnes is for this man, and that some other boss is for that man. Why not let the people say whom they are for? If they are for Taft, well and good. But if they show by their votes that they are for Hughes or some other Republican, why nominate Taft?"

EXPECTS TO EXTEND 'PRIMARY' THROUGH STATE.

Mr. Bates hopes to extend this unofficial presidential primary throughout the State, so that the bosses may get an opportunity to find out whom the people are for.

Here is the postal card which has been sent to the voters of the Sixth District:

How do you regard as the best Republicans? Most Progressive Candidates.

TAFT. HARMON. WILSON.
ROOSEVELT. HUGHES.
LA FOLLETTE. UNDERWOOD.

Do you desire me to call a Direct Presidential Primary of the enrolled Republicans of this District?

Remarks and suggestions:

With the postal card is inclosed a letter signed by Mr. Bates, reading in part:

Do you desire a direct Presidential primary to be held in this election District prior to the election of delegates to the Republican National Convention?

If you wish a voice in this matter and desire an election district primary meeting, please signify on the inclosed post card. In this meeting you can offer any resolution you want for any candidate you choose, and instruct your district representatives to follow any course of action, under penalty of removal.

Mr. Bates thinks that this district, in which it is proposed to hold the district presidential primary, is the best barometer of political opinion. It is possible to get. It is one of the most independent in the city and has markedly exemplified the general trend of public sentiment. For instance, in the progressive wave which elected Gov. Hughes it went 220 Republican. In the reaction to Gov. Dix it went 130 Democratic.

PROMINENT POLITICIANS IN THE DISTRICT.

Among the residents of the Sixth District are Hon. Otto T. Bannard, principal spokesman for President Taft in this city; W. Elmer Roosevelt, a cousin of Col. Roosevelt; James Talcott, one of the leading advocates of Gov. Hughes; George L. Smith, Mr. Bannard's former chairman of the Republican County Committee, who died up against Roosevelt in the Saratoga Convention last year; William Ulvors, executive member of the district who was for Roosevelt at that time; Wall Street is strongly represented by Victor G. K. Smith, Adolph Lewisohn, Eugene Belmont.

The district boundaries are Fifty-seventh street to Sixty-second street; Madison avenue to Sixth avenue. It includes the Hotel Plaza, the Savoy, the Netherlands and the Metropolitan, Biltmore and Driving Marmona and New York Athletic Club.

WESTCHESTER VILLAGERS BAR THE "PEST HOUSE"

The residents of Westchester Village, who for nine years have been resisting the plan of the Department of Health to establish a contagious disease hospital in their locality, finally won their fight to-day. The Corporate Stock Committee of the Board of Estimate announced through Comptroller Prendergast that the committee had agreed to eliminate the Westchester site.

With the announcement, a number of villagers, including a score of women who attended the public hearing held in the old Common Council Chamber of the City Hall, gave a loud cheer. They had described the proposed hospital in their verbal protests to the committee as a "pest house" and an "undesirable institution to erect in our fair village."

In seeking a new site for the proposed hospital, Comptroller Prendergast stated that one would probably be selected on an island.
